

The Estimate of Clothcraft Always Higher Than The Price

ASK your friend how much he thinks you paid for your suit. If it's a Clothcraft and he doesn't happen to know it, he's sure to guess at least a third more than the actual price. It's not surprising either. In the first place, it's hard for him to realize that a suit can fit you so well without being measured for it.

Then when he notices the cloth, the neat tailoring and the stylish set and drape of the clothes, he is surprised to learn that Clothcraft Clothes cost only $10 to $25. Especially is he surprised to learn that Clothcraft Clothes are all wool, covered by a guarantee that also insures lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

On the strength of this guarantee alone, many men have first been led to buy and wear Clothcraft Clothes. It's a safe example for you to follow.

Scientific Tailoring Makes it possible to sell The Clothcraft Blue Serge Special No. 5130, at $15.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

THE NOBLEST ROMAN Writes on Boone Way and Other Interesting Subjects.

Somerset, Ky.
May 3, '13.

My Dear Friend:

The above form of address is pertinent; it is real, it is sincere, and I think justified by our past intercourse.

I am inclosing check for "Boone Postage Fund" which will purchase stamps for one hundred and twenty five letters of usual weight. I had intended sending two weeks ago but was prevented by an attack of the malady incident to old age. I have dropped on the latter part of the sentence by reading in the infernal newspapers, daily, semi-weekly, tri-weekly and hebdomadal, so often that Mr. so and so died from the infirmities incident to old age. They seem to have found no other cause for "Shuffling off this mortal coil." If I was monarch of all I survey I would certainly put a quietus on it. It is bad enough goodness knows to be old without having it constantly flung in your face by sheets that have your money in their jeans. I think it high time that a crusade was made against it under the statutes for the prevention of cruelty to animals. I believe man is an animal, and woman is not, because I have seen no piece announcing the death of a female from such cause; or it may be that they never grow old. But I am helpless and can only enter this my feeble protest.

The check I assure you will be good if it is paid. You will remember, no I am too fast you are entirely too young for that, so let me say that you have heard from tradition and as a matter of ancient history, of the man who when postage stamps first were in vogue, used one but being a doubting Thomas wrote under it "Paid if the D-d thing sticks". This may have some application to the enclosure, the D-D thing may not be honored unless presented promptly. I have some faint hopes that it will pass the cashier but candor and doing what is right between man and man, compels me to say that the right hand side of my bank book is making a desperate and I sometimes fear a successful assault on the left. So send in before the ciuelid surrenders and the pillage is complete.

I am glad to add my "Mite" to this glorious enterprise and to wish it a hearty "God Speed". It is a proposition worthy of all acceptance. If a road is finished as proposed it will rival historically, and patriotically the great Roman Highways that enabled a speedy spread of the Gospel of the Son of Man. This has been far better expressed by a great man, Edward Everett, in these beautiful words: "The roads and aqueducts of Rome have been the admiration of all after ages, and have survived thousands of years after all her conquests have been swallowed up in digestion or become the spoil of barbarians".

Besides if this state would have great men in the present or the future it must do something worthwhile to honor and perpetuate the names and deeds of its pioneers who laid broad and deep the foundations of its present glory. "An age which passes over in silence the merits of its heroic, deserves as a punishment that it should not bring forth such an one in its midst." No part of the "Winning of two West" can be written in which his name can be omitted. His fame has reached across the broad Atlantic and has been placed among the immortals in the following glowing and truthful lines of England's premier poet, Lord Byron: "Of all men—Who passes for in life and death most lucky."

Of all great men which in our faces stare, Is Daniel Boone, Backwoodsman of Kentucky.

Crime came not near him—she is not the child of Solitude. Health shrank not from him, for

Her home is in the rarely trodden wild"

Shall we fail to give the merited tribute in what shall be a lasting form, that shall last as long as "We are many in One" and still survive that. If we do then we stamp ourselves indelibly as degenerate sons of noble sires". You may, tho not a female woman, have a slight touch of curiosity why I selected a certain period rather than another to send the contribution. You shall have that curiosity gratified. It grows out of a little sentimentality that is in me, of which I would fain in this prosaic time, rid myself but cannot entirely throw it to the winds.

It was during the week intervening between the 12th and 10th of April just 55 years ago that my young eyes first looked upon Mount Vernon then and now a veritable Mecca of the heart to me. It was a love visit, in the Spring time when as Tennyson so sweetly expresses it "A young man's heart turns to the things of Love". I had bled across country from Somerset to bring home, the then to me the dearest little girlie in all the "Wide wide world". It rained so as to prevent immediate return and for several days I was detained in the village. I did not form many acquaintances, the time being better employed. Of those I did meet I am unable to recall one Bright and early on Sunday we (it was I that left Somerset) but found Buck creek a raging impassable stream and we were invited to partake of the hospitality of that prince of gentlemen, Uncle Jeff Gilmore till the flood of water should subside. By a tight squeeze the fording was successfully made on Monday morning and Somerset was reached in time for me to make my opening campaign speech as a candidate for county attorney.

This was my first public entrance into politics which has been, not inappropriately, denominated as H-1. I have been in it more or less since. I next saw Mount Vernon when passing through it to visit the battlefield of Wildcat in the fall of 1861; then on the second Monday in August 1864 when Maj. T. L. W. Saxyer and myself set the ball rolling for Lincoln. Since then my visits on pleasure, politics and business have been regular. When I went to see one sweetheart little did I anticipate that I was going to fall desperately in love with another, to wit the good people of Rockcastle county but such is the fact, they have been my constant friends thru good and evil report, never having failed me. I have loved them all these years and shall love them till I die. I could not let this opportunity pass without having my name connected in a small way with an undertaking in which they have so deep an interest.

I could not resist, the almost equally strong temptation, to burden what was on my heart to you. There are several to whom I might have done this unobscuring but your prominent connection with the movement, (you possessing also the other qualifications) fixed my choice.

In conclusion, with the very best wishes, with the hope that The "Boone Way" will be constructed that your name may be linked with it, and you will "pardon the garrulity of an old man" I am, Sincerely yours,

THOMAS Z. MORROW,
Mr. James Maret,
Mt. Vernon Ky.

HEALTH A FACTOR IN SUCCESS

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all dealers.

ballot of that party with which they declare their affiliation. This will leave the selection of the nominees open to some abuse because under it a Republican elector might declare his affiliation with the Democratic party, receive a Democratic ballot and then vote for the weakest candidate on the ticket. By a concerted action on the part of any great number of members either the one or the other party, the weakest candidates of either the one or the other party might thereby be selected, but from the careful reading of the entire law I see no way that this matter can be regulated or controlled unless it is left to the discretion and good judgment of the judgment of the judges and I doubt then whether they would have the power to refuse a man a ballot on the simple grounds that they did not believe he affiliated with the party indicated by his declaration.

I do not think that it was the intention of the Legislature that there should be any blank space left on the ballot for the writing of names. My belief in this view is somewhat borne out by the latter part of Section 17 of the act, which provides as follows: "The ballot shall be printed so as to give each elector a clear opportunity to designate his choice of candidates for nomination by making with the stencil a cross in the square after the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote for nomination. "If my construction of this section is correct that is that the choice of the elector shall only be designated in the manner provided in Section 17, then the officers of the election would not be authorized to count as a valid vote for any person, whether for one party or the other, a name written on the ballot with a pencil or with pen and ink, as far as that is concerned.

It is claimed by parties posted in the law that when a voter cast his ballot at 1912 election for Wilson will not be allowed a Republican ballot or one who voted for Taft will not be allowed a democratic ballot. The same rule would of course apply to the Progressives.

The Board of Trade Bristol, Va., Tenn., advises our Commercial Club that three districts of Scott county in Virginia have voted $105,000 for good roads which assures the completion of the Bristol-to-Lexington (Ky.) Highway between Bristol and Cumberland Gap. Boone Way from the Gap to Crab Orchard would do the balance.

W. J. LAMPTON. (H. RITES)

One of New York's great ritters is W. J. Lampton, a native of Leslie county Kentucky the heart of the mountains of Eastern portion of our domains. He has made good in the great metropolis and has gained a national reputation in his profession. The following epistle indicates that he is a believer in the old sayings: "It is better late than never", and "It is never too late to do good". Listen:

By this time—date of your letter Jan. 30.—you have cooled down from cussing me out and I take my pen in hand to let you know I am well and hope you are enjoying the same blessing.

When your request for a Boone boom came I couldn't have found time to have done it if I could, but I couldn't. To do that sort of thing right a man has to be on the ground and up to the chin in the spirit of it. Of course I could have written a Fourth of July sort of a blow, but it would have sounded like wind and not had half the power of a genuine cyclone. I've been there and I know.

So much at the time your letter came. Then when I began to get my breath and stretch my legs I concluded that as I had been so doggone impolite as not to pay any attention at all you had probably consigned me to the hot place and gone ahead on your own power. Then I felt better and began to study up a real nice apology. This isn't it. This is just a nice statement of facts.

How is the road building coming? Do you know you are tackling a mighty big proposition? If you could swing the road some how up into New York state where there is plenty of money you might do better with it, but I don't see just how it can be done. Even New Jersey might be worth considering with Woodrow in the White House and plenty of Jersey pride.

However, here's hoping you'll get it and I'll live to run a big red touring car up and down it. Yours to command,
W. J. LAMPTON,
April 29, 1913.

WHY A MAN LIKES A DOG.

"Why does a man like a dog?" responded the suffragette lady, fiercely, and repeated: "Why does a man like a dog? Well there are numerous reasons, though a dog is not a reasoning being. A dog will lick the hand that beats it; a dog will eat a crust and a bone and bless the giver; a dog thinks whatever a man does is right and proper; a dog has no rights that a man is bound to respect; a dog asks no embarrassing questions; a dog is always grateful, no matter for what; a dog does not ask the man to stay at home nights; a dog is satisfied to love the man, whether the man loves the dog or not; a dog submits to any and all impositions without protest; a dog does not consider itself a man's equal; a dog lets a man have his own way; a dog doesn't want to vote; a dog is just as glad to see a man when he gets in at 3 o'clock in the morning, almost helpless, as if he hadn't gone out at all; a dog has no mother in sight and a dog can't talk back—can't talk back, mind you, nor won't talk back. That is why a man likes a dog."

W. J. Lampton, in New York Herald.

The annual clean up day was well observed yesterday and many wagon loads of trash were hauled out of the city. Property owners responded very well and had the trash in barrels ready for the hauling. The next, and really most important step to be taken, is that of keeping the premises clean. Nothing is more disgusting than a yard filled with rubbish and trash. As the saying goes, "Be decent if you can't be respectable."

The Rockcastle County Christian Bible School Convention will meet with the Rose Hill Sunday School, Sunday, May 18th, next Sunday week. If your school has not reported to the County Secretary please see that it is mailed to day or bring it to the Convention.

Candidates Take Pledge. In a great many of the counties of the State the candidates for the different county offices have met together and each signed an agreement not to use any whiskey or money in their campaign for votes in the coming primary. This is a very progressive step and it is said that such a move may be instituted by candidates in Rockcastle county. Everyone would be glad to see such an agreement made and carried out except the "floaters" who of course would regret the move, thereby making the pledge all the more desirable.

A. N. Ballard the man from Garrard county who came to this county about three years ago and bought over a thousand dollars worth of stock, giving checks for same all of which went to protest, and made his escape, disposing of the stock before the fraud was detected, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Cam Mullins in Hamilton Ohio, Wednesday. Sheriff T. J. Niceley went to Cincinnati yesterday morning to meet Mr. Mullins and with the necessary papers for the extradition of Ballard, who was brought to Mt. Vernon on the early train this morning and lodged in jail.

You'll never make a better investment than to put your money into Fish's $15 special suits today. Ground limestone for fertilizer and other purposes is one of the products gotten out here by W. J. Sparks Co. The demand for it is growing and the firm is being rushed with orders.

Tell me, ye winged winds that around my pathway rear, do ye not know some quiet spot where wives clean house no more; some lone, sequestered dale, some island ocean girt, where life is not one ceaseless war with cobwebs and dirt; where natures carpet spreads beneath their tired feet, and wretched men are near compelled its emerald folds to rear? The breeze fanned my heated face and said: "Beat on, there's no such place."

There are many to criticize and many to offer advice in this world but now few real helpers. The New York Sun tells of a recent incident on the streets of that great city, where a horse drawing a cartload of coal, stalled. A great crowd gathered about, and many were the words of advice spoken to the driver. One advised whipping, another tying a cloth over the horses eyes, blowing in his ear, and such things. Just then two sailors came along, and one of them called out, "Ay, mate, but here's a craft on a reef! 'Over with her, then!'" Both seized a wheel for a lift, the driver clucked for the horse to go ahead, and away went the load as easily as you please. They were the only two in the whole crowd who had not advised the driver how to do it.

Miss Sallie Hasty a beautiful young lady, of Wildie Ky., was called to rest Monday evening, her promising young life departing with the sinking sun, bringing darkness and sorrow to her many friends and relatives.

She was a girl loved by all who knew her and will be missed more than words can express as her loving sympathetic disposition was a source of sunshine and happiness to all who came in her path.

While the deceased is sadly missed by a mother and father and a host of friends and relatives we are comforted by the consoling thought that she is in heaven enjoying the glories thereof and awaiting the time when she will be with her loved ones once more.

Weep not for those, who now at rest,

Are by eternal happiness blessed

And when in peace, repose somewhere,

In heaven, safe in Jesus care.

Our girl is gone, we loved her so,

But God has said we all must go

Still, death is but a veil, that here

On earth doth hide a brighter sphere.

She is not dead but just asleep

And some day God has said

Will meet,

And press her fondly to our heart,

In heaven never more to part.

WOMEN TAKE NOTICE!

A man cannot understand the torture and suffering many women endure uncomplainingly. If the majority of men suffered as much pain and endured with patience the weakening sicknesses that most women do, they would ask for immediate sympathy and look for a quick cure.

Many women have been saved from a life of misery and suffering by turning to the right remedy—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy which is safe to take because containing no narcotics, alcohol or injurious ingredients. It is an alterative extract of roots, made with pure glycerin, and first given to the public by that famous specialist in the diseases of women—Dr. R. V. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. R. V. PIERCE

MISS LIZZIE M. THESSEMER, of Lincoln, Neb., 539 "C" St., says: "I read a testimonial with much pleasure so that some suffering woman may know the true worth of your remedies. I was a great sufferer from female troubles but after taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which a friend advised me to take, I found myself very much improved. After taking three more bottles, and using two boxes of Dr. Pierce's Little Tablets, I found myself on the road to recovery. I was in poor health for five years but now I am cured."

"I hope all women suffering from female weakness will give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a fair trial."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles, you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C. Lower, Druggist, of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery: "I know Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed." It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung cough. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Chas. C. Davis.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Calahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had backache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.
